

Consider a puzzle based on a network of connected red circles (variables) with the rule "No consecutive letters in adjacent circles" (constraints). The letters A to H can be assigned to each circle (domain).

Now solve as CSP. Here is a start. Why were those variables and values chosen? What happens next?

